

The art of memories...

a reminiscence inspired training course

Merseyside Maritime Museum

Monday 28 September

Thursday 1 October

Monday 5 October

FREE

Liverpool NHS
Primary Care Trust

NATIONAL MUSEUMS LIVERPOOL

The art of memories...

Merseyside Maritime Museum

10am - 4.30pm each day

This 3 day course will enable participants to learn more about the subject of reminiscence and how it can be useful in any care situation or community location

Monday 28 September

Day 1 - Overview

An overview of reminiscence as well as some practical work in the subject.

Thursday 1 October

Day 2 - Knowledge and memory

Building on the knowledge of reminiscence and the importance of memory we will explore and photograph the Albert Dock and the surrounding area.

Monday 5 October

Day 3 - Memory and culture

Using the International Slavery Museum, we will explore how reminiscence can be used when working people from diverse cultures and how culture has influenced fashion, food and music.

If you would like to attend this 3 day course or for further information, email the details below to - jackie.ross@liverpoolmuseums.org.uk, telephone 0151 478 4428.

I have/have not got a camera (delete as appropriate)

The course is limited to 20 people, please book early to avoid disappointment. Please inform us if you require special access facilities.

For directions to Merseyside Maritime Museum go to www.liverpoolmuseums.org.uk.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided.