

Access information

Getting into the Walker

There are two designated parking spaces available in the rear car park on a pre-booked basis. Contact the information desk on 0151 478 4178. There is also parking on William Brown Street with a limited number of blue badge spaces.

The building is accessed via a ramp to the right of the main entrance.

Getting around the Walker

There is a lift between the two floors.

There are two wheelchairs available to borrow on request at the information desk.

There are wheelchair accessible toilets on the ground floor.

The shop/information desk has a lowered service point.

The cafe is accessible by wheelchair. Neither tables nor chairs are fixed to the floor. Waitress service is available. There are large print menus.

Assistance dogs are welcome.

On the galleries

Large print guides are available on most galleries. Any other documents can be requested in large print.

Craft & Design gallery (ground floor): there are four computers; three with sound and induction loops. Videos have subtitles.

Big Art (ground floor): one computer without sound. Three touch screen interactives, all with removable stools. One is at a lower height for smaller wheelchair users.

Temporary exhibition gallery (first floor): There is a tall kiosk giving access to websites. This is unsuitable for wheelchair users. It is operated via a mouse.

The Rex Makin lecture theatre next door to the Walker (the venue for some talks) is accessed via a ramp. There are designated spaces for wheelchairs within the theatre. There is also an induction loop system.

More in depth information on accessibility at the Walker Art Gallery can be found on the Disabled Go website (<http://www.disabledgo.info> then search for 'walker').
