

Can you find a gruesome death mask of Napoleon made of bronze?

Napoleon was one of Lever's heroes. Lever collected all the Napoleon objects on display in this room. Unfortunately some of the objects turned out not to have been Napoleon's at all!

ROOM 9

the head has been stuck back in place. painting you can see where the join around closely at the original

Draw Lever's head in the box so it can be reunited with his body. If you look artist minus the head. Copsi accidentally sent back to the rest of the painting was and hid it away in his safe. out his face from the portrait himself so much that he cut Lever disliked this painting of by Augustus John.

ROOM 26

What do you think has been braided inside this miniature? Find the set of miniature portraits in this room. The miniatures are between 150 - 300 years old which are hidden in a drawer

ROOM 26

Did you know he liked to sleep in the open air, got up at 4.30am every morning and only liked cold baths?

objects to help fill the Lady Lever Art Gallery.

Lever started collecting art to help advertise Sunlight Soap and over his lifetime collected over 20,000 wonderful objects to help fill the Lady Lever Art Gallery and being a collector!

William Hesketh Lever

Lever became best known for Sunlight Soap, Port Sunlight Village, the Lady Lever Art Gallery and being a collector!

Lever started collecting art to help advertise Sunlight Soap and over his lifetime collected over 20,000 wonderful objects to help fill the Lady Lever Art Gallery and being a collector!

ROOM 7

This is a Buddhist altar ornament. The leaves spouting from the vase on the elephant's back are made from green jade and the berries from red coral. The elephant is the Chinese symbol of peace.

Complete the other half of this drawing.

ROOM 5 What is Chinoiserie?

- A: A strap that rests on your chin.
- B: Chinese influenced art made in Europe.
- C: A type of parrot.

Open this to find out more!

LEVER COLLECTS TRAIL

National Museums Liverpool
Liverpool National Museums

Lady Lever
ART GALLERY

FREE ENTRY

liverpoolmuseums.org.uk/ladlever

National Museums Liverpool

Follow the arrows to discover these objects and their stories on your trail around the Gallery. Shade the + signs when you find them to show that William Hesketh Lever added them to his collection.

ROOM 19
(NORTH ROTUNDA)

Cinerarium

This is a Roman ash chest which was made about 1900 years ago for the ashes of Caius Perperna Geminus, who died when he was 68.

What do you think it's made from?

ROOM 30

Queen Victoria by Sir David Wilkie

Queen Victoria really disliked this portrait by Wilkie!
Why do you think she disliked it?

ROOM 25

16th century games board

This board is around 400 years old and can be used to play chess and backgammon.

How many animals and insects can you find on the board?

ROOM 3

Haycarting by George Stubbs

George Stubbs was from Liverpool and best known as a horse painter. He was interested in painting techniques which would be more permanent.

This painting looks like an oil painting but was actually made of pottery and painted with en - - - ls.

ROOM 6

Lady Gertrude Fitzpatrick by Joshua Reynolds

A family story about this painting of Lady Gertrude Fitzpatrick says that she was shy and hid under a table, so artist Sir Joshua Reynolds decided to paint her just as she was.

What is Gertrude holding?

ROOM 10
(MAIN HALL)

The Daphnephoria by Frederick Leighton

This was one of Lever's favourite paintings!

ROOM 4

Wedgwood fireplace

Josiah Wedgwood, like Lever, looked after his workers. Wedgwood built houses for his workers which they could live in even after they retired.

ROOM 7

Figure of Guanyin

This figure is of Guanyin, the Goddess of M - - - -. It has an inscription which shows that it was the gift of a man named Dang and his wife Chong.

ROOM 35 (SOUTH VESTIBULE)

Port Sunlight Museum and Garden Village

Look out of the window.

What can you see?